

YOUNG BLOOD – EPISODE SYNOPSIS

In the wild Mother Nature shows no mercy – especially to its newest recruits. For both predators and prey it is a fight for survival from their very first breath. In order to make it to adulthood, young animals have to learn and perfect their own cunning tactics to outwit and out manoeuvre every danger they face in the cruel battleground of the Kalahari. Whether they are hunters or one of the hunted, this is a game of strategy and skill to give each baby the best chance at life. From the imperious lion to the elusive leopard and the loyal wild dog – the traits that define each species are lessons of survival passed down from parent to offspring. But they only get one chance to get it right; Predator or Prey, each day could be their last.
